

CENTER SCENES...

WELCOME ABOARD!

We are so very pleased to welcome to the LCYDC Board of Directors two remarkable women of substance. The City of Opelika recently appointed Ms. Sidney (Sid) James Nakhjavan and the City of Auburn recently appointed Ms. Dolly Marshall to our Board. We are pleased to have these community leaders join our talented Board Team and look forward to the difference that their presence will make. Thank you for your willingness to serve Ms. Nakhjavan and Ms. Marshall – and welcome a-Board!

UPCOMING DATES TO REMEMBER

Hard to believe but the rush of the holiday season will soon be upon us. Keep the following dates in mind:

November: Open Enrollment for Employee Benefits – Please schedule a time to see Ms. McGriff or Ms. Morgan to discuss any changes you wish to make in the array of employee benefits available.

November 25th and 26th: Thanksgiving Holidays – Offices Closed

December 17th: Annual Employee Holiday Brunch

December 24th and 27th: Christmas Holidays – Offices Closed

December 31st: New Year's Eve – Offices Closed

Make a note of these dates and lean in to the simple pleasures that these seasons bring.

Bad dog! Our Golden-Doodle, Haley, sneaks in a forbidden lounge on furniture at TLP home :)

Greater Peace Development Corporation presents 2021 Humanitarian Award to Laura Cooper

Our partnership with Prestwick Community Outreach Clears Land

Cafeteria proud to receive veggies from Community Garden with O-Grows

Opelika Police Department on Campus for Information and Goodwill

OPD imparting knowledge to our young detainees

LCYDC accepts generous donation of hygiene products from the Women's Missionary Ministries of Mt. Zion Missionary Church

Our child presenting during Opelika Night Out

Our wonderful new Outdoor Pavilion

Graduates Marching out from stage of our New Pavilion and on to the stage of life!

East Alabama Chapter - Alabama Society of CPS's gives up a Saturday to spruce up our grounds